- Staff who visit from outside agencies such as the Speech and Language therapy (SALT) Service.

	Types of support provided also showing the stage of the Code of Practice (the document that schools use to plan their SEN children will be at when receiving this input.	What would this mean for your child?	Who can get this kind of support?
What are the different types of support available for children with SEND in this school?	Class teacher input via first quality teaching.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ensuring that the teacher has the highest possible expectations for your child and all children in their class. • Ensuring that all teaching is based on building on what your child already knows, can do and can understand. • Putting in place different ways of teaching so that your child is fully involved in learning in class. This may involve things like using more practical learning. • Putting in place specific strategies, which may be suggested by the Inclusion Manager/SENCO or staff from outside agencies, to support your child to learn 	All children in school receive this.
	Specific small group work. This group may be <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • In the classroom or outside. • Run by a teacher or most often a Learning Support Assistant who has had training to run these groups. These are often called Intervention groups by schools.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Your child’s teacher will have carefully checked on your child’s progress and will have decided that your child has gap in their understanding/learning and needs some extra support to close the gap. • They will plan group sessions for your child with targets to help your child to make more progress. • A Learning Support Assistant/teacher (or outside professional such as a Speech and Language Therapist) will run these small group sessions using the teacher’s plans, or a recommended programme. 	Any child who has specific gaps in their understanding of a subject/area of learning. Some of the children accessing intervention groups may be at the stage of the SEND Code of Practice called SEN Support, which

			means they have been identified by the class teacher as needing some extra support in school, after putting strategies in place at class level.
	Specialist groups run by outside agencies e.g. Speech and Language therapy OR Occupational therapy groups AND/OR Individual support for your child of 20 hours and below in school Stage of SEND Code of Practice: SEN Support, which means they have been identified by the class teacher and Inclusion manager as needing some extra support in school or from a professional outside school, after putting strategies in place at class level This may be from: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Local Authority central services such as the ASD Outreach Team or Sensory Service (for students with a hearing or visual need) • Outside agencies such as the Speech and Language therapy (SALT) Service. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Your child will have been identified by the class teacher/Inclusion Manager (or you will have raised your worries) as needing more specialist input instead of or in addition to class teaching and intervention groups. • You will be asked to come to a meeting to discuss your child’s progress and help plan possible ways forward. • You may be asked to give your permission for the school to refer your child to a specialist professional e.g. a Speech and Language Therapist or Educational Psychologist. This will help the school and yourself understand your child’s particular needs better and be able to support them better in school. • The specialist professional will work with your child to understand their needs and make recommendations, which may include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Making changes to the way your child is supported in class e.g. some individual support or changing some aspects of teaching to support them better ○ Support to set targets which will include their specific professional expertise ○ A group run by school staff under the guidance of the outside professional e.g. a social skills group ○ A group or individual work with outside professional 	Children with specific barriers to learning that cannot be overcome through whole class teaching and intervention groups.

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The school may suggest that your child needs some agreed individual support or group support in school. They will tell you how the support will be used and what strategies will be put in place.
	Specified Individual support for your child of more than 21 hours in school. This is usually provided via an Education, Health and Care Plan (EHCP) This means your child will have been identified by the SENCO/Educational Psychologist, as needing a particularly high level of individual and small group teaching (more than 21 hours a week), which cannot be provided from the resources already delegated to the school. Usually, your child will also need specialist support in school from a professional outside the school. This may be from: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Local Authority central services such as the ASD Outreach Team or Sensory Service (for students with a hearing or visual need) Outside agencies such as the Speech and Language therapy (SALT) Service, Occupational therapy service, Physiotherapy and/or CAMHS 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The school (or you) can request that the Local Authority carry out a statutory assessment of your child’s needs. This is a legal process and you can find more details about this in the local authority (LA) based Local Offer, on the Royal Greenwich web site: Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND) Local Offer Greenwich Community Directory Your child’s school/setting will have been putting together a profile of your child’s aspirations and needs over time. The school will then meet with you and other professionals involved in a TAC meeting (Team Around the Child), and decide if it would be helpful to apply for a statutory assessment, and agree any additional information and evidence that should be included from you, themselves and other involved professionals After the school have sent in the request to the Local Authority (with a lot of information about your child, including some from you), they will decide whether they think your child’s needs (as described in the paperwork provided), seem complex enough to need an EHC plan. If this is the case they will ask you and all professionals involved with your child to write a report outlining your child’s needs. If they do not think your child needs this, they will ask the school to continue with the support at SEN support. After the reports have all been sent in the Local Authority will decide if your child’s needs are severe, complex and lifelong and that they need more than 21 hours of support in school to make good progress. If this is the case they will write an EHC Plan. If this is not the case, they will ask the school to continue with the support at SEN support and also set up a meeting 	Children whose learning needs are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Severe, complex and lifelong Need more than 21 hours of support in school

		in school to ensure a plan is in place to ensure your child makes as much progress as possible. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • An EHC Plan will outline the number of hours of individual/small group support your child will receive from the LA and how the support should be used and what strategies must be put in place. It will also have long and short term goals for your child. • The additional adult may be used to support your child with whole class learning, run individual programmes or run small groups including your child.
How will we support your child with identified special needs starting at school	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • We will invite you to visit the school with your child to have a look around and speak to staff. • If other professionals are involved, we will meet them or contact them to discuss your child's needs, share strategies, and ensure provision is put in place before your child starts. • Depending on your child's needs we may suggest transition visits or adaptations to the settling in period to help your child to settle more easily. • If your child is to have a key person involved we will arrange times when they can meet you and your child to get to know each other.
How can I let the school know I am concerned about my child's progress in school?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If you have concerns about your child's progress you should speak to your child's class teacher initially. • If you are not happy that the concerns are being managed and that your child is still not making progress you should speak to the Inclusion Manager (SENCO) or Head of School • If you are still not happy you can speak to the school SEND Governor.
How will the school let me know if they have any concerns about my child's learning in school?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • When a teacher or a parent has raised concerns about your child's progress, and targeted teaching has not met the child's needs, the teacher must raise this with the Inclusion Manager. • Schools also have meetings every term between each class teacher and a senior staff member in the school to ensure all children are making good progress. This is another way your child may be identified as not making as much progress as expected. • If your child is then identified as not making progress the school will consider whether to monitor this or set up an intervention group and will discuss this with you in more detail. • If your child is still not making expected progress the school will discuss with you <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ any concerns you may have ○ any further intervention or referrals to outside professionals to support your child's learning ○ how we could work together, to support your child at home/school
How do we ensure that the views of your child (and other children with SEND in the school) are used	This could include things like: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Children will either be present for all or part of their SEND Support Review meetings or the teacher or an LSA will discuss the meeting with them in advance.
